

PARTNERSHIP FOR A SAFER MARYLAND

DATA-TO-ACTION WEBINAR SERIES

The Partnership for a Safer Maryland (PSM) is hosting a free webinar series highlighting injury and violence prevention data and programs in Maryland. The webinars will focus on Maryland-specific data and strategies to prevent injuries and deaths.

OVERDOSE PREVENTION IN THE WORKPLACE

Date: January 30, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.

Data Experts: Jacqueline Shanks, MPH and Grace Douglass, MPH, Epidemiologists from the Center for Environmental, Occupational, and Injury Epidemiology at MDH

Subject Matter Experts: Clifford S. Mitchell, MS, MD, MPH, Environmental Health Bureau at MDH & Marianne Cloeren, MD, MPH, FACOEM, FACP, University of Maryland School of Medicine

**Register here!**

POISONING

Date: March 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.

Data Expert: TBA

Subject Matter Expert: Emily Patterson, MPH, CHES, Maryland Poison Center

**Register here!**

TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY

Date: May 2025 at 10:00 a.m.

Data Expert: TBA

Subject Matter Expert: TBA

**Register here!**

By the end of each webinar, participants will be able to:

- Name the primary data source featured and briefly describe the types of information it includes.
- Recall at least one major finding from the data presented.
- Identify at least one population most impacted by the featured violence or injury topic.
- Describe one program, policy, or practice in Maryland that aims to prevent or reduce the frequency of the featured violence or injury topic.

